Dear Parents and Kids,

School will soon be out for the summer, and maybe you'll be lucky enough to be going somewhere on vacation. Whether you take a trip to a foreign country or just head out to the back yard, don't forget to take along the books, iPads and eReaders, because READING TAKES YOU EVERYWHERE! That's the theme for this year's summer reading program, so don't forget to travel at least as far as the GERMANTOWN PUBLIC LIBRARY. We'll have a painting party, crazy science experiments with Mad Science, Cardinals and Grizzlies tickets, puzzles, games and other activities through June and July that reflect the theme.

The Summer Reading Program is simple: Read books and earn prizes. As always, library programs are FREE! Kids ages 4-12 are welcome to attend events, read or be read to for prizes, or do it all.

Our kick-off event will take place Saturday, June 9 at 10am with a Painting Party! You can register any time before then by calling 523-4820, emailing gma@gtownlibrary.org or stopping in at the library. Watch the Breese Journal, our website, Facebook page and signs posted at the library for more information.

Remember, when you read you can travel the world...no gas required!
